

How can my HOSA chapter get involved with Autism Speaks?

Form a team for the Carolinas Walk Now for Autism

Organize a school walk

Start a Student Club for Autism Speaks (SCAS)

Organize other fundraising & awareness events

Host Autism Awareness Week at your school

Autism Awareness Week Ideas

Establish a Puzzle Piece Campaign

Autism Awareness Buttons

Bake Sales

Car Washes

Raffles

Host "A-Thons"

(Jump-A-Thons, Swim-A-Thons, Dance-A-Thons)

Denim Days or Dress for Success Days

Potluck Dinner or Lunch

Other Awareness Opportunities

School and local newspaper articles about HOSA and Autism Speaks

HOSA Chapter newsletter articles about autism-related issues and/or Autism Speaks

Field trip to a health care facility which provides services to those with developmental disabilities (including autism)

Speak to a community group about autism spectrum disorders (utilizing talking points provided by Autism Speaks).

Host an activity or party for children with autism at a local school or autism center

Dates to Remember:

April = Autism Awareness Month

Saturday, October 4, 2008 = Carolinas Walk Now for Autism = www.walknowforautism.org

Autism Speaks – Carolinas Regional Office

Michelle Preslar

4530 Park Road; Suite 320

Charlotte, NC 28209

(704) 561-0003

(866) 64-AUTISM (866-642-8847)

carolinas@autismspeaks.org

www.walknowforautism.org/carolinas

www.autismspeaks.org